Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ayrolles U.S. Patent 5,564,987 in view of LaPointe et al U.S. Patent 5,171,000.

Ayrolles disclosed a swing comprising a seat (11) having at least a bottom for supporting one or more persons sitting thereon; a pair of suspension members (7) having lower ends (10) attached to opposite ends of the seat and upper ends connected to a spring device (8) and adapted to be attached to a ceiling structure (2-2) for suspending the seat. It is noted that Ayrolles failed to teach the adjustable tension suspension device as set forth in claim 1. However, LaPointe disclosed an adjustable rocker spring apparatus comprising a spring tension adjuster (12), a spanner (14) and at least one coil spring (16, 18) there between. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the spring device (8) of Ayrolles with the adjustable rocker spring apparatus as taught by LaPointe for the purpose of allowing user with precise adjustment and proper balance of the swing.

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3712

Claims 2-5, and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 8-21 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The enclosed references are cited for interest.
